DG Paul—Monthly Update

Fellow Rotarians,
Reading a quality magazine like the Rotarian provides a brief relief from the intense demand of the digital information age. With the Rotarian, we can have a more thoughtful focus on ways to serve mankind. The Rotarian is also a great source of information on Board decisions, upcoming events and general interest.

Relief from Digital Tsunami

In the Rotarian April issue, author Frank Bures describes how dependent we are on the internet to find information and communicate, and yet we are drowning in data. He notes that our efforts to multi-task are preventing us from a deeper understanding of information. As a remedy he recommends spending a “day offline” each week to enable anxiety levels to go down, energy to increase, focus to return and the false sense of urgency that the Internet seems to foster to disappear.

Relaxing with the Rotarian Magazine

The Rotary 4-Way Test:

1. Is it the Truth?
2. Is it Fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build Goodwill and better Friendships?
4. Will it be Beneficial to all concerned?

seems to be one of the ways to briefly relieve the daily tidal wave of digital information and contemplate a higher purpose.

Time of Transition

This month we enter the final quarter of the Rotary Year. It is an important time of transition for Rotary, as incoming club leadership will be attending Assembly Training on April 16th at Tarrant County College (Fort Worth).

Follow Through

On May 6,7,8 we have the Annual District Conference at the beautiful new Hurst Conference Center (Hurst, Texas). All members are encouraged to come and celebrate the achievements of 2010-11 and honor those who serve. Both of these events (Conference and Assembly) play an essential role in the relevancy and continuity of Rotary to our community and the world.

Thank you in advance for your commitment to following through on your efforts which are making 2010-11 an excellent year. It will be great to see you at the District Conference next month and with you celebrate service and honor those who serve. Registration for the District Conference is now available in the “Events” section of our Website www.rotary5790.org.

Thank you for all you are doing in Rotary Service,

Paul Lucas
