Tis the Season to be Rotary!

Tis the season for song and celebration! This week, we will be treated to Christmas music from the TWU Brass Quintet. A mix of faculty and students, the group consists of Noel Wallace, Angela Winter, Zachary Broyles, Matt Anderson and Marty Bishop. Don't miss this special program.

As a reminder, the December 17 meeting will be the final Rotary meeting of 2009. The next two Thursdays fall on Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve, respectively, so we will resume our regular meetings on January 7. It's hard to believe a new year, and a new decade, is fast approaching. Have a safe and happy holiday season!

Fight against polio takes a step forward

By Antoinette Tuscano
Rotary International News
4 December 2009

In a major step forward in the fight to rid the world of polio, the U.S. government and the Organization of the Islamic Conference (OIC) announced that they will be strengthening their collaboration toward eradicating the disease.

Panelists speaking at UNICEF headquarters in New York City on 2 December stressed that the battle against polio may be won or lost depending on how well all sectors of society can work together, including governmental and nongovernmental agencies, and religious organizations. In the areas where polio maintains its last strongholds, misinformation and conflict continue to impede workers' ability to vaccinate children.

The panel was organized after U.S. President Barack Obama issued a statement in June announcing "a new global effort" with the OIC to eradicate polio.

Dr. Bruce Aylward, director of the Global Polio Eradication Initiative at the World Health Organization, said eradication is possible through some very simple methods, if the political will is there.
