Telling Texas Tales

Our program for Rotary next week features Elizabeth Ellis and Jerry Young, two standout storytellers from the Tejas Storytelling Association. Don't miss their unique performances.

Elizabeth Ellis is a versatile and riveting teller of Appalachian and Texas tales and stories of heroic American women, though her personal stories are arguably her best. She has captivated over 250,000 children and countless adults at schools, universities and festivals in her 25 year career as a storyteller.

Elizabeth's storytelling journey has taken her from her local library to as far away as New Zealand. She was selected as a "Listener's Choice" at the 30th Anniversary National Storytelling Festival and a Storyteller-In-Residence at the International Storytelling Center. She was the first recipient of the John Henry Faulk Award from the Tejas Storytelling Association and the Circle of Excellence Award from the National Storytelling Association.

Jerry Young is a storyteller. Quite simply, he loves the art and joy of the story and the performance of storytelling to any audience - young or old. Schools, nursing homes, retirement communities, clubs, church groups, businesses, or civic organizations are all the proper places for stories to Jerry. His love of storytelling goes back to his roots - the red, sandy soil of Oklahoma, but his career blossomed in Texas where he has spent most of his life as an educator. Jerry has gathered the legends, tales, and lore of the Lone Star State and made his own indelible mark on them. His sense of story is "as strong as trail drive coffee" and his affinity for the state has earned him the nickname "The Texas Talerattler."

His repertoire includes folk and fairy tales, legends, tall tales, myths, fables, stories of family, sacred stories, ghostly tales, and holiday stories. They come from a rich diversity of ethnic and cultural backgrounds which include African-American, Native American, Asian, and Mexican, as well as his own homegrown Oklahoma-Texas tales of now and then.
