President Wilkinson Shows the World That Rotary Shares

Pakistani President Pervez Musharraf presents Wilkinson with the Sitara-e-Eisaar (Star of Sacrifice) in Islamabad in February to honor Rotary's swift relief efforts after the earthquake in Kashmir. The Rotary Foundation, clubs, and districts contributed cash, food, clothing, medicine, and other supplies totaling more than US$5 million to survivors of the October 2005 quake. The award, which recognizes organizations for their earthquake relief work, is one of the highest honors bestowed in Pakistan

Wilfrid J. Wilkinson, 2007-08 RI president, has launched the new Rotary year as the year to “say yes to Rotary.” The RI theme, Rotary Shares, is a reflection of his commitment to share Rotary with others through service and recruiting new members.

Wilkinson, a member of the Rotary Club of Trenton, Ontario, Canada, sees the concept of sharing as a motivating force behind Rotary work. “In choosing this theme, I thought about how much of Rotary is about sharing. We share our time, we share our talents, we share our money with others who need our help,” he told incoming district governors at the 2007 International Assembly in February.

“In Rotary, sharing doesn’t mean giving away what you have to spare, what you don’t need for yourself,” he explained. “Sharing means giving of yourself, selflessly, for the good of others.”

Wilkinson has chosen to continue immediate past president Bill Boyd’s emphases of water, health and hunger, literacy, and family of Rotary. “These basic needs have been at the forefront of Rotary’s efforts for several years now,” he says. “And I hope that they will continue, because with clean water, good health, and the ability to read and write, so many of the people who need help will find the ability to help themselves.”

In a time of dwindling participation in service organizations worldwide, Wilkinson emphasizes the importance of commitment to membership expansion. “It’s not always an easy thing to invite someone into Rotary. Too often, we hear no. And no one likes to hear no. It’s easy to get discouraged. But you have to expect those no’s, and know when to ask again — and when to move on to find a yes somewhere else.”

Equally important to Rotary’s future, says Wilkinson, is attention to programs for youth. “Working to strengthen our programs for youth helps ensure a new generation of responsible, ethical, and volunteer-minded people. [They] are our link to the future of Rotary which we ourselves will not see.”

President Wilfrid J. Wilkinson's TRAVELOGUE

July 2007

I began my year as president-elect with great anticipation, but the past 12 months have been more remarkable than I realized they would be. I can only imagine what my year as 2007-08 RI president will be like. As RI president, I look forward to serving Rotary to the best of my abilities.

During my year as president-elect, I acted as an ambassador for Rotary International. Everywhere I went, I shared with others information about the amazing humanitarian efforts Rotarians are involved in every day.

One of my most memorable meetings as president-elect was in February 2007 with Pakistan’s president, Pervez Musharraf. I was there to accept the Sitara-e-Eisar Award (the Star Award for Courage and Sacrifices), which was created especially for Rotary to recognize its work in the aftermath of the South Asia earthquake that hit Pakistan in October 2005. I was so proud of all the Rotarians who had responded to that area’s need for assistance during that terrible time.

While I was there for the award, President Musharraf generously took almost an hour out of his full schedule to talk with me. He praised Rotarians’ efficiency in delivering aid after the earthquake and how well Rotarians worked locally with the army.

We also discussed polio eradication efforts in Pakistan, which is one of the four remaining polio-endemic countries. I was elated when President Musharraf expressed his commitment to eradicating polio.

The Rotary 4-Way Test

Is it the TRUTH? • Is it FAIR to All Concerned?

Will it Build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS? • Will it be BENEFICIAL to All Concerned?

...from Wilfrid's Travelogue

While I was the one lucky enough to spend time discussing these issues with President Musharraf, it was really the work of the Rotarians that was being recognized. Time and time again, Rotarians have accomplished near miracles as they acted locally, but thought globally. I've always believed that as Rotarians we don't just sit around and talk about helping others. As Rotarians, we share the love we have for our fellow human beings, and we help whenever we can.

During the course of my president-elect duties, there were many places where my wife, Joan, and I traveled that will always be etched in our memories. We visited an Afghan refugee camp in Pakistan; toured a Rotary eye bank in India; gave babies polio vaccine drops while in Tanzania, Africa; and met fellow Rotarians in Beijing, China.

Another highlight of my president-elect year was the 2007 International Assembly in San Diego, California, USA. It was here to all of the incoming Rotary governors that I first announced my theme of Rotary Shares. From everything I've seen during my 45 years in Rotary, and I saw it again at the 2007 RI Convention in Salt Lake City, Utah, I know how true it is that Rotary Shares.

More times than I can count, Rotarians have shared their hospitality, friendship, resources, and compassion with me. Now, in my presidential year, it's my opportunity to graciously return the favor.
