RI chief meets with Dolly Parton to talk literacy

By Joseph Derr

Rotary International News -- 7 September 2011

General Secretary and CEO of Rotary International John Hewko visited backstage with country music legend Dolly Parton during her 28 July concert stop in the Chicago area. The meeting further strengthened ties between RI and Parton's Dollywood Foundation to promote reading and literacy.

"We reaffirmed Rotary's commitment to working with Dolly's foundation on literacy," says Hewko. "Both of our organizations have put basic education and literacy front and center and have worked together on that goal."

In 2009, RI announced a collaborative arrangement with the Dollywood Foundation's Imagination Library program. Since then, hundreds of Rotary clubs in the United States, Canada, and the United Kingdom have initiated literacy projects.

Parton was also a speaker at the 2010 RI Convention in Montréal, Québec, Canada.

Rotary clubs are encouraged to support the Imagination Library program, in which children from birth until age five receive age-appropriate books each month, so that parents and other family members can begin reading to them as soon as possible.

"Collaborating with the Imagination Library is a great way for Rotary clubs in these countries to contribute to literacy -- one of Rotary's six areas of focus -- in a very direct and effective way," Hewko says.

Hewko added that it's an ideal time for clubs to get started on Imagination Library projects, with International Literacy Day 8 September.
