Proposing a new member

Membership is every Rotarian's responsibility. Each new member must be proposed for membership by an active member of the club. If you know someone who has all the qualities of a good Rotarian and you're an active member of a Rotary club, consider proposing that person for membership.

If you know someone who doesn't live in your community but would make a great Rotarian, complete the referral form (download a pdf or fill out online). The person's contact information will be forwarded to the appropriate district leadership for consideration.

If you're a current Rotarian who's moving to a new community, complete the relocation form (PDF or online), and your information will be forwarded to the appropriate district leaders. Your current club can sponsor you for membership in a club in your new community.

Identifying qualified candidates

Qualified candidates for Rotary club membership are adults of good character and business, professional, or community reputation who fit one of the following criteria:

- Hold or have held an executive position with discretionary authority in any worthy and recognized business or profession
- Serve as a community leader
- Is a Rotary Foundation alumnus

All candidates should also demonstrate a commitment to service through personal involvement, be able to meet the club's attendance and community project participation requirements, and live or work in the vicinity of the club or the surrounding area.

For full membership qualifications, refer to the RI Bylaws.

Types of membership

There are two types of Rotary club membership, active and honorary:

Active members must meet the above qualifications.

Honorary members have distinguished themselves by meritorious service in support of Rotary's ideals. They're considered friends of Rotary for their permanent support of Rotary's cause and are elected by the club.

Prospective member information

Educating potential members about the basics of Rotary club membership provides them with realistic expectations regarding benefits and obligations. Clubs should inform potential members about club, district, and RI activities as well as the structure and history of Rotary.
