Two TWU Pioneers to speak this week

Chalese Connors is in her 10th year as the Director of Athletics at Texas Woman's University. She was previously the sports information director at TWU from 1995-2000, adding assistant athletics director and senior woman administrator duties the last two years. From July 2000 to August 2001, Connors worked for the Southland Conference as the assistant media relations director for the NCAA Division I league.

Connors oversaw a very successful year in 2009-10. The Pioneers ran their best "winning streak" to 56 consecutive semesters of posting a combined grade point average of 3.0 or better for all student-athletes, reinforcing TWU's commitment to academic and athletics excellence. All five athletic teams also found success advancing to the postseason for the first time since 2005-06 season. Basketball and soccer teams set new school records for conference wins with 9-5 and 6-3-1 LSC records respectively. Gymnastics captured the 2010 Midwest Independent Conference Championship for the second time in school history and sophomore Rashonda Cannie won the USAG Individual All-Around National Championship for the second consecutive season. Led by the senior All-American, Billie Callahan, the softball team advanced to the NCAA Regional Tournament while the volleyball team continued its dominance in the conference and made its seventh straight trip to the LSC Tournament.

A native Texan and Aubrey resident, Connors and her husband, Sean, have a daughter, Makenna.

Fleur Benatar has been the head soccer coach at Texas Woman's University since the program's inception in fall 2002. In her eight years as the Pioneers' bench boss, she has compiled an overall record of 51-83-16. In 2009 Benatar guided her team to a school record six conference wins and a third place finish in the standings, the highest in the program history.

The Pioneers have played in three Lone Star Conference postseason tournaments (2005, 2007 and 2009) and numerous TWU players have earned All-Lone Star Conference honors under Benatar's direction. Several TWU players have also garnered Lone Star Conference All-Academic distinction on Benatar's watch including two LSC Academic Player of the Year honors - Aly Vincent-Evans in 2008 and Jacqueline Horner in 2009.

Benatar and her husband, Will Whitten, have a daughter, Gabrielle Nicole and a son, Fletch.

Historic Moments: Rotary in New Orleans

By Susan Hanf
Rotary International News
14 September 2010

The 2011 RI Convention in New Orleans, Louisiana, USA, will top off more than a century of Rotary in the Crescent City. The history of Rotary in New Orleans, Louisiana, USA, can be traced back to an early visit by a Chicago Rotarian to one of the city's insurance representatives.

Charles A. Newton, then of the Rotary Club of Chicago, visited William J. Bovard, a New Orleans resident working in the insurance field. Impressed by Newton's account of Rotary in Chicago, Bovard proposed the idea of launching a Rotary club in New Orleans to several friends. On 23 February 1910, the club's 26 charter members met and adopted a constitution and bylaws.

Three days later, Bovard shared the good news with Newton, writing that "it is the desire and sense of this Club to become a member of the National Organization." Newton forwarded the letter to Paul Harris, who responded, "Perhaps it will not surprise you if I inform you that New Orleans has been the one point of all others, which I have wanted to see brought into the fold."
